Provider Spotlight on MOVA – Growing Collaborations

MAYOR'S OFFICE OF VETERANS AFFAIRS

Since joining the ServingTogether Network the DC Mayor's Office of Veteran Affairs (MOVA) has been an active network provider and ranks 6 out of 95 among providers in referrals made and received.

This amazing group is dedicated to serving the District's veteran community, their families, survivors, and military caregivers. MOVA seeks to address the broad range of social, economic, and healthcare needs of the District's veteran community by building strategic partnerships with public and private organizations, creating veteran-centered policy initiatives, and developing strong relationships with the veteran community.

Director Elliot J. Tommingo and his team at MOVA are outstanding partners and always ready to support fellow veteran serving agencies and organizations. In January 2020, MOVA will team up with ServingTogether and the Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic to host a brand new DC Veterans Collaborative. Stay tuned for more information about the meetings. Click HERE to find out more about upcoming events and services being offered by MOVA.

ServingTogether in Prince George's County –Partnerships that Strengthen Communities

On October 19th Serving Together took part in the Prince George's County Veterans Resource Fair at the Oxon Hill Public Library. The fair featured 20 Military & Veteran programs; and over 100 participants attended that day. County Executive Angela D. Alsobrooks spoke at the event and highlighted her commitment to making Prince George's County strong, especially for veterans and their families. Also there to provide their support at the event were State Senator Melony Griffith and Veterans Affairs Director Dr. James Dula. The event was made possible through a continued partnership between the Prince George's Commission for Veterans, ServingTogether and The Prince George's Office of Veteran Affairs.

Network Launch in Prince George's County

ServingTogether and The Prince George's Office of Veteran Affairs have teamed up to hold the official launch of the ServingTogether Network and Veteran services in Prince George's County on Tuesday, November 19th from 1:00-3:30PM. At the event we will demonstrate the ServingTogether Provider Network and answer any questions about participation in the Network. Please encourage any providers you know who would be a good fit for the ServingTogether network to come out and learn more about joining. Potential providers from all over the National Capital Region are welcome. Contact Jennifer Watson jwatson@everymind.org for more information.
